Michigan State Capitol:

This image, with flags flying to indicate that both chambers of the legislature are in session, may have originated as an etching based on a drawing or a photograph. The artist is unknown. The drawing predates the placement of the statue of Austin T. Blair on the capitol grounds in 1898.

PAGE GRAPHICS

Capitol Dome:

The architectural rendering of the Michigan State Capitol's dome is the work of Elijah E. Myers, the building's renowned architect. Myers inked the rendering on linen in late 1871 or early 1872. Myers' fine draftsmanship, the hallmark of his work, is clearly evident.

Because of their size, few architectural renderings of the 19th century have survived. Michigan is fortunate that many of Myers' designs for the Capitol were found in the building's attic in the 1950's. As part of the state's 1987 sesquicentennial celebration, they were conserved and deposited in the Michigan State Archives.

East Elevation of the Michigan State Capitol:

When Myers' drawings were discovered in the 1950's, this view of the Capitol – the one most familiar to Michigan citizens – was missing. During the building's recent restoration (1989-1992), this drawing was commissioned to recreate the architect's original rendering of the east (front) elevation.

RELATIONSHIP TO THE MICHIGAN ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

The Michigan Administrative Code (1979 edition), which contains all permanent administrative rules in effect as of December 1979, was, during the period 1980-83, updated each calendar quarter with the publication of a paperback supplement. An annual supplement contained those permanent rules, which had appeared in the 4 quarterly supplements covering that year.

Quarterly supplements to the Code were discontinued in January 1984, and replaced by the monthly publication of permanent rules and emergency rules in the Michigan Register. Annual supplements have included the full text of those permanent rules that appear in the twelve monthly issues of the Register during a given calendar year. Emergency rules published in an issue of the Register are noted in the annual supplement to the Code.

(2) A portable ladder in use shall be equipped with appropriate safety feet, unless the ladder is tied, blocked, or otherwise secured to prevent it from being displaced. Slip-resistant feet must shall not be used as a substitute for care in placing, lashing, or holding a ladder that is used upon slippery surfaces, including flat metal or concrete surfaces that are constructed so that they cannot be prevented from becoming slippery.

(3) A portable ladder that is used at such a pitch that the horizontal projected distance from the top support to the base is less than 1/5 of the vertical distance between these points shall be secured at the top to prevent tipping backward.

(4) A portable ladder that is used at a pitch of 80 degrees or more shall be in compliance with the requirements of a fixed ladder as prescribed in General Industry Safety and Health Standard Part 2. “Walking-Working Surfaces,” ~~Standard Part 3 “Fixed Ladders,”~~ as referenced in R 408.41102a.

(5) When portable ladders are used for access to an upper landing surface, the ladder side rails must shall extend not less than 3 feet (0.9 m) above the upper landing surface to which the ladder is used to gain access; or, when such an extension is not possible because of the ladder’s length, then the ladder must shall be secured at its top to rigid support that will not deflect and a grasping device, such as a grab-rail, grabrail, shall be provided to assist employees in mounting and dismounting the ladder. The side rails shall not extend in a manner that would permit ladder deflection under a load, by itself, to cause the ladder to slip off its support. The top of a non-self-supporting ladder shall be placed with the 2 rails supported equally, unless the ladder is equipped with a single support attachment.

(6) A manufactured portable metal ladder shall not be used for electrical work or where the ladder or an employee may contact electrical conductors.

A ladder shall have nonconductive side-rails siderails if the ladder is used where the employee or the ladder could contact exposed energized electrical equipment, except as provided in Construction Safety Standard Part 16. “Power Transmission and Distribution,” as referenced in R 408.41102a.

(7) A metal ladder must shall not be used or moved unless a minimum of 20 feet is maintained between power transmission or distribution lines.

(8) A power transmission or distribution line or electrical apparatus must shall be considered energized unless the property owner or utility indicates it is de-energized and the line or apparatus is visibly grounded. Where de-energizing is impractical, the minimum clearances set forth in table 1 shall be maintained between the ladder, employee, or material, whichever is closer.

(9) Table 1 reads as follows:

VOLTAGE	MINIMUM CLEARANCE
To 50 kV	10 feet
Over 50 kV	10 feet plus .4 inch per kV

(10) An employee who is using a portable ladder shall not stand on the top 2 rungs or within 3 feet of the top of the ladder.

(11) Two portable ladders must shall not be spliced together to provide long sections unless such ladders are specifically designed for such use.

(12) A portable 2-section extension ladder must shall be erected so that the top section rests on the base section. The top section must shall be the section nearest to the climber.

(13) A non-self-supporting ladder must shall be used at an angle such that the horizontal distance from the top support to the foot of the ladder is approximately 1/4 of the working length of the ladder that is the distance along the ladder between the foot and the top support.

(14) A fixed ladder must shall be used at a pitch of not more than 90 degrees from the horizontal, as measured to the back side of the ladder.

(15) An employer shall ensure that each self-supporting portable ladder complies with all of the following:

(a) A ladder must sustain at least 4 times the maximum intended load, except that each extra-heavy-duty type 1A metal or plastic ladder must sustain at least 3.3 times the maximum intended load.

(b) The ability of a ladder to sustain the loads indicated in this rule is determined by applying or transmitting the requisite load to the ladder in a downward vertical direction.

(c) Ladders built and tested in conformance with the applicable provisions of R 408.41111, are deemed to meet this requirement.

R 408.41140 Fixed ladders.

Rule 1140. A fixed ladder must shall be as prescribed in General Industry Safety and Health Standard Part 2. "Walking-Working Surfaces," Standard Part 3 "Fixed Ladders," as referenced in R 408.41102a.

OPINIONS OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

STATE OF MICHIGAN

DANA NESSEL, ATTORNEY GENERAL

CONSTITUTIONAL LAW: Constitutionality of 2018 PA 359.

CONST 1963, ART 4, § 24:

Sections 14d(1), (4) and (5) of 2018 PA 359 violate article 4, § 24 of the Michigan Constitution because the substance of these provisions exceeds the scope of what is generally reflected in the title of 1952 PA 214, as amended by Act 359.

Sections 14d(1), (4), and (5) of 2018 PA 359, which are unconstitutional under article 4, § 24 of the Constitution, cannot be severed from the remainder of Act 359 because doing so would be inconsistent with the intent of the Legislature.

Any court determination that 2018 PA 359 is unconstitutional would likely apply that decision retroactively, and conclude that the Mackinac Straits Corridor Authority, its Board, and any action taken by the Board are void from their inception.

Opinion No. 7309

March 28, 2019

The Honorable Gretchen Whitmer
Governor
The Capitol
Lansing, MI 48909

You have asked several questions regarding the constitutionality of 2018 PA 359 (Act 359), which amended the Mackinac Bridge Authority Law, 1952 PA 214, MCL 254.311 *et seq.*¹ Principally, the amendments authorized the Mackinac Bridge Authority (Bridge Authority) to acquire a “utility tunnel”² connecting the Upper and Lower Peninsulas of Michigan, created the Mackinac Straits Corridor

² Act 359 defines the term “utility tunnel” to mean:

Authority (Corridor Authority), and authorized the Bridge Authority or the Corridor Authority to operate a utility tunnel. 2018 PA 359.

History of 2018 PA 359

Act 359 was introduced as Senate Bill 1197 on November 8, 2018.¹ As introduced, the Act amended 1952 PA 214 to allow the Bridge Authority to acquire, construct, operate, maintain, improve, repair, and manage a utility tunnel; to purchase or otherwise acquire at a fair and reasonable price property and property rights in connection with the construction of the tunnel; to enter on any land, water, or premises to make a survey, sounding, or examination in connection with the tunnel; to perform any acts necessary to secure consent from any state entity necessary for the construction and operation of the tunnel; to specify that the Authority's purposes were a public purpose and its performance was an essential government function; to specify that all property owned by the Authority related to the tunnel would be exempt from all taxes levied by the State and all of its political subdivisions; and to define the term utility tunnel.² The bill accomplished these changes by amending the title to Public Act 214 and adding a new § 14.³

[A] tunnel joining and connecting the Upper and Lower Peninsulas of this state at the Straits of Mackinac for the purpose of accommodating utility infrastructure, including, but not limited to, pipelines, electric transmission lines, facilities for the transmission of data and telecommunications, all useful and related facilities, equipment, and structures, and all necessary tangible or intangible real and personal property, licenses, franchises, easements, and rights-of-way. Senate Bill 1197 was referred to committee and was reported out as Substitute S-1 on November 29, 2018.¹ Substitute S-1 added amendments to § 5 of Public Act 214, which relates to bonds issued to finance the Mackinac Bridge construction, and specified that § 5 did not apply to the “utility tunnel” authorized in § 14.² Substitute S-1 was referred to committee on December 5, 2018 and was reported out as Substitute S-2 on the same day.¹

Substitute S-2 made significant changes in that it authorized the creation of the Corridor Authority, headed by the Corridor Authority Board. Upon appointment of members to the Corridor Authority Board, all duties, responsibilities, authorities, and powers of the Bridge Authority related to a “utility tunnel” would transfer to the Corridor Authority Board. Substitute S-2 required the Corridor Authority to enter into an agreement or series of agreements for the construction, maintenance, operation, and decommissioning of a utility tunnel if the Corridor Authority made certain findings regarding the proposed agreements. If a proposed tunnel agreement were supplied by the governor to the Corridor Authority before December 21, the Corridor Authority was required to enter into the agreement(s) by December 31, 2018. If the governor did not supply a proposed tunnel agreement by that date, the Corridor Authority would have to act on a proposed agreement within 45 days after one was presented.

Substitute S-2 also created the Straits Protection Fund, which could accept money or assets from any source, and the Corridor Authority Board could use the fund for oversight of the proposed utility tunnel. Substitute S-2 also added a provision to require the attorney general to provide for the costs of representation by an attorney chosen by the Bridge Authority or the Corridor Authority if the attorney general declined to represent either body in a matter related to the utility tunnel.² Substitute S-2 accomplished these changes by amending the title to Public Act 214, amending §§ 1 and 5, and adding new §§ 14, 14a, 14b, 14c, 14d, and 14e.³ The same day it was reported out of committee, Substitute S-2 was approved by the Senate by a vote of 25 to 13, and sent to the House of Representatives.⁴

On December 11, 2018, Senate Bill 1197, as substituted, was reported from committee as House Substitute H-2, but H-2 was not adopted.⁵ House Substitute H-1 was then adopted.⁶ The House approved an amendment to H-1, requiring that a tunnel agreement include a plan for engaging the State's labor pool in the project, and passed SB 1197 by a vote of 74 to 34.⁷ Senate Bill 1197, as substituted by H-1, was then returned to the Senate the same day and the Senate concurred in Substitute H-1, passed the bill on a 25 to 12 vote, and gave it immediate effect.⁸

Senate Bill 1197 was presented to former Governor Rick Snyder on December 11, 2018 and he signed it the same day. It was filed with the Secretary of State on December 12, 2018 and became immediately effective⁹ as Public Act 359 of 2018.¹

In the days that followed, Governor Snyder appointed members to the Corridor Authority Board, who held a public meeting on December 19, 2018, and approved a tunnel agreement.²

Legal principles

When addressing a constitutional challenge to a statute, the statute is “presumed to be constitutional” and there is a “duty to construe [the] statute as constitutional unless its unconstitutionality is clearly apparent.” Taylor v Smithkline Beecham Corp., 468 Mich 1, 6 (2003). Indeed, every “reasonable presumption or intendment must be indulged in favor of the validity of an act, and it is only when invalidity appears so clearly as to leave no room for reasonable doubt that it violates some provision of the Constitution” that the statute’s validity will not be sustained. Phillips v Mirac, Inc., 470 Mich 415, 423 (2004) (quotation marks and citations omitted).

Title-Object Clause

You ask whether Act 359 violates article 4, § 24 of the Michigan Constitution, often referred to as the Title-Object Clause. Const 1963, art 4, § 24.

A. Title-Object Clause Framework

Article 4, § 24 of Michigan’s Constitution provides that “[n]o law shall embrace more than one object, which shall be expressed in its title. No bill shall be altered or amended on its passage through either house so as to change its original purpose as determined by its total content and not alone by its title.” Michigan’s two previous Constitutions contained the same language set forth in the first sentence of § 24. See Const 1908, art 5, § 21, Const 1850, art 4, § 20. The second sentence, prohibiting a change of purpose, was new to the 1963 Constitution.

² The tunnel agreement between the Mackinac Straits Corridor Authority and Enbridge Energy, as well as other related documents, may be found at <https://mipetroleumpipelines.com/document/mackinac-straits-utility-corridor> (last accessed March 28, 2019).

Not long after its initial adoption, Justice Cooley described the purpose of the Title-Object Clause:

The history and purpose of this constitutional provision are too well understood to require any elucidation at our hands. The practice of bringing together into one bill subjects diverse in their nature, and having no necessary connection, with a view to combine in their favor the advocates of all, and thus secure the passage of several measures, no one of which would succeed upon its own merits, was one both corruptive of the legislator and dangerous to the state. It was scarcely more so, however, than another practice, also intended to be remedied by this provision, by which, through deleterious management, clauses were inserted in bills of which the titles gave no intimation, and their passage secured through legislative bodies whose members were not generally aware of their intention and effect. [People ex rel. Drake v Mahaney, 13 Mich 481, 494–495 (1865).]¹

Justice Cooley clarified, however, that the intent of the clause was not to unnecessarily hinder the passage of legislation:

There was no design by this clause to embarrass legislation by making laws unnecessarily restrictive in their scope and operation, and thus multiplying their number; but the framers of the constitution meant to put an end to legislation of the vicious character referred to, which was little less than a fraud upon its own merits, and that the legislature should be fairly notified of its design when required to pass upon it. [Id.]

Generally, three types of challenges may be brought under the Title-Object Clause: (1) a title-body challenge, (2) a multiple-object challenge, and (3) a change-of-purpose challenge. People v Kevorkian, 447 Mich 436, 453 (1994). Your request raises all three with respect to the enactment of Public Act 359. But because the title-body challenge is dispositive, it is unnecessary to address the multiple-object and change-of-purpose challenges.

1. Title-body review

A title-body challenge contends that “the title of the act does not adequately express the content of the law.” Kevorkian, 447 Mich at 453; Twp of Ray v B & BS Gun Club, 226 Mich App 724, 728–729 (1997). Relevant to this analysis, article 4, §24 provides that “[n]o law shall embrace more than one object, which shall be expressed in its title.” Const 1963, art 4, § 24. “The ‘object’ of a law is defined as its general purpose or aim,” and this “one object” provision “must be construed reasonably, not in so narrow or technical a manner that the legislative intent is frustrated.” Pohutski v City of Allen Park, 465 Mich 675, 691 (2002) (citations omitted). Regarding the title, “the constitutional requirement is not that the title refer to every detail of the act; rather, ‘[i]t is sufficient that “the act centers to one main general object or purpose which the title comprehensively declares, though in general terms, and if provisions in the body of the act not directly mentioned in the title are germane, auxiliary, or incidental to that general purpose[.]” ’ ” Id. (citations omitted).

The Michigan Supreme Court applied these principles in holding a statute unconstitutional in Rohan v Detroit Racing Ass’n, and that decision is instructive here. 314 Mich 326 (1946). In Rohan, the Court addressed a title-body challenge to 1933 PA 199: “The precise question is whether [] the provision of section 9 of Act No. 199 authorizing the leasing of State-owned land for ‘the conduct of horse racing,’ embraces an object no[t] express[e]d in the title of the act. In other words, is this leasing provision germane, auxiliary or incidental to the general object of the act as expressed in its title[.]” 314 Mich at 354. The title to Public Act 199 provided:

“An Act to provide, regulate and license the conducting of racing meets in the state of Michigan; to create the office of Michigan racing commissioner, to prescribe his powers and duties and to provide for []his salary and expenses; to legalize and permit auction pools, the pari-mutuel or certificate method of wagering on the result of races at licensed race meetings in the state of Michigan; to appropriate the funds derived therefrom; to render inapplicable all acts or parts of acts in conflict therewith, and to provide penalties for the violation thereof.” [Rohan, 314 Mich at 354, quoting 1933 PA 199, title (emphasis added).]

Section 9 of Public Act 199 authorized the state department of agriculture “to lease on behalf of the state, for the conduct of horseracing and other lawful purposes, any lands subject to the control of the said department of agriculture, said lease to be subject to the approval of the state administrative board.” 1933 PA 199, § 9 (emphasis added).

After noting these provisions and existing precedents, the Court restated the question as whether “the title of the act g[ave] the legislature and the public, fair notice that the act contain[ed] a provision delegating to the department of agriculture authority to lease State-owned land, such as the Detroit fair grounds, for ‘the conduct of horse racing[.]’ ” Id. at 356. The Court concluded it did not:

We are convinced that the wording of the title of the act does not give notice of, or call attention to, or in any way express or indicate, the object or purpose of delegating authority to the department of agriculture to lease State-owned land for the conduct of horse racing. [Id. at 356-357 (citations omitted).]

The Court further stated that the provision in § 9 “authorizing the department of agriculture to lease State-owned land under its control [was] not germane, auxiliary or incidental to the general object and purpose of the act as expressed in its title, which was to regulate horse-racing meets and betting on horse races.” Id. at 357 (citations omitted). In other words, the language in the title regarding the provision, regulation, and conduct of horse-racing meets did not adequately reflect the leasing provision in the body of the act. Accordingly, the Court held § 9 of Public Act 199 unconstitutional. Id.

Similarly, in Maki v East Tawas, the Supreme Court noted that § 24 “was not a hollow formality” and sustained a title-body challenge to § 7 of 1964 PA 170 because the title provided for governmental immunity for injuries arising from negligence, but the body, in § 7 of the statute, provided for governmental immunity from all tort liability. 385 Mich 151, 156–159 (1971) (superseded by subsequent statutory amendment to cure the Title-Object Clause violation). See also Alan v Wayne County, 388 Mich 210, 269, 364–381 (1972) (Black J., concurring specially); Knott v City of Flint, 363

Mich 483 (1961); Klatt v Durfee, 159 Mich 203 (1909); Blades v Board of Water Commr's of Detroit, 122 Mich 366 (1899); and City of Birmingham v Oakland County, 49 Mich App 299 (1973) (finding title-body violations).

Turning to Act 359, an amendatory act, the question is whether the title to 1952 PA 214, as amended by Act 359, adequately expresses the content of the law. See Knott, 363 Mich at 495 (“As a general proposition the title of an act must be sufficiently broad so that one reading it may reasonably expect to find in the body of the act provisions of the character that the legislature has seen fit to insert, either in the original enactment or by amendment.”); Black v Powell, 248 Mich 150, 151 (1929) (observing that amended sections of the act were within the title as amended). See also Sutherland Statutory Construction, § 22:8, pp 272–273 (“Amendatory provisions that are not germane to the subject expressed in the title of the original act are unconstitutional, unless the title of the original act can be and is amended without violating the rule against dual subject matter.”).

The title to Act 214, as amended by Act 359, provides in full:

[1]An act authorizing the Mackinac bridge authority to acquire a bridge and a utility tunnel connecting the Upper and Lower Peninsulas of Michigan, including causeways, tunnels, roads and all useful related equipment and facilities, including park, parking, recreation, lighting, and terminal facilities; [2] extending the corporate existence of the authority; [3] authorizing the authority to enjoy and carry out all powers incident to its corporate objects; [4] authorizing the appropriation and use of state funds for the preliminary purposes of the authority; [5] providing for the payment of the cost of the bridge and authorizing the authority to issue revenue bonds payable solely from the revenues of the bridge; [6] granting the right of condemnation to the authority; [7] granting the use of state land and property to the authority; [8] making provisions for the payment and security of bonds and granting certain rights and remedies to the holders of bonds; [9] authorizing banks and trust companies to perform certain acts in connection with the payment and security of bonds; [10] authorizing the imposition of tolls and charges; [11] authorizing the authority to secure the consent of the United States government to the construction of the bridge and to secure approval of plans, specifications, and location of the bridge; [12] authorizing employment of engineers regardless of whether those engineers have been previously employed to make preliminary inspections or reports with respect to the bridge; [13] authorizing the state transportation department to operate and maintain the bridge or to contribute to the bridge and enter into leases and agreements in connection with the bridge; [14]

exempting bonds and the property of the authority from taxation; [15] prohibiting competing traffic facilities; [16] authorizing the operation of ferries by the authority; [17] authorizing the creation of the Mackinac Straits corridor authority; [18] authorizing the operation of a utility tunnel by the authority or the Mackinac Straits corridor authority; [19] providing for the construction and use of certain buildings^[1]; [20] and making an appropriation. [2018 PA 359, title (Emphasis added; bracketed numbering added.)]

The italicized language represents the most relevant amendments to the title. While a title need not serve as an index to all the provisions of an act, Rohan, 314 Mich at 355; Twp of Ray, 226 Mich App at 728–729, it must “ ‘comprehensively declare[], though in general terms’ ” the “ ‘main general object or purpose’ ” of the act. Pohutski, 465 Mich at 691 (citations omitted) (emphasis added). The title need not directly mention other provisions in the body of the act if those provisions “ ‘are germane, auxiliary, or incidental to [the] general purpose[.]’ ” Id.

Here, the amendatory language in the title of Act 359 reflects that its main object or purpose is the acquisition of a utility tunnel at the Straits of Mackinac by the Bridge Authority and the operation of such a tunnel by either the Bridge Authority or a newly created Corridor Authority.

2. Section 14d of Act 359 fails title-body review

While Act 359 added several sections to Public Act 214, the “invalidity” of § 14d “appears so clearly as to leave no room for reasonable doubt” that it violates article 4, § 24 and cannot be sustained. Phillips, 470 Mich at 423. Because the analysis of § 14d is ultimately dispositive, it is unnecessary to address in this Opinion the legality of the other sections.

a. Subsection 14d(1)

¹ This clause was added by 1992 PA 120, which also amended Public Act 214 to add § 32, MCL 254.332, permitting the expenditure of money for the construction of a building to be leased by the Michigan State Police.

Section 14d transfers all the Bridge Authority’s duties and powers relating to a utility tunnel under § 14a, and any money in the Straits Protection Fund created by § 14c, to the new Corridor Authority Board created by § 14b upon that Board’s appointment, to be exercised without any oversight by the Bridge Authority:

All liabilities, duties, responsibilities, authorities, and powers related to a utility tunnel as provided in section 14a and any money in the straits protection fund shall transfer to the corridor authority board upon the appointment of the members of the corridor authority board under section 14b(2). The transfer of duties, responsibilities, authorities, powers, and money described in this subsection does not require any action by the Mackinac bridge authority or any other entity. The corridor authority board shall exercise its duties independently of the state transportation department and the Mackinac bridge authority. [2018 PA 359, § 14d(1), MCL 254.324d(1).]

Under § 14d(1), the Bridge Authority’s initial authority to acquire the utility tunnel, and all that comes with it, is transferred to the Corridor Authority Board. This transfer comes without fair notice and is a surprise since clause 1 of the amended title “authori[zes] the Mackinac bridge authority to acquire . . . a utility tunnel connecting the Upper and Lower Peninsulas of Michigan[.]” (Emphasis added). Clause 17 of the amended title simply advises of the “creation of the Mackinac Straits corridor authority.” And clause 18 thereafter “authoriz[es] the operation of a utility tunnel by the authority or the Mackinac Straits corridor authority[.]” (Emphasis added). Clause 18 suggests that at some point the Corridor Authority may operate a utility tunnel. But, of course, the body of Act 359 reveals that all authority with respect to the utility tunnel – from its acquisition, construction, and operation, to the purchase of property and rights in property, and the securing of permits, etc. – is automatically transferred from the Bridge Authority to the Corridor Authority upon the appointment of its Board members. The Bridge Authority retains no duties or oversight of the utility tunnel.

Neither clauses 1, 17, and 18 nor any other clause in the amended title adequately encompass, or can be construed to encompass, the complete transfer of rights and duties relating to the acquisition, construction, and operation of a utility tunnel to the Corridor Authority. This transfer of authority was not “comprehensively declare[d], though in general terms” in the amended title. Pohutski, 465 Mich at 691–692. The constitutionality of § 14d(1) thus hinges on whether it may be considered germane, auxiliary, or incidental to the general purpose of Act 359 such that it need not have been mentioned in the amended title. Id.

An amendment or a substitute is germane if it falls within the general purpose of a bill or is an extension of the general purpose. Anderson v Oakland Cty Clerk, 419 Mich 313, 328 (1984). Again, the title of Act 359 reflects that its main object or purpose is to authorize the Bridge Authority to acquire a utility tunnel, which tunnel will then be operated by the Bridge Authority or the Corridor Authority. Here, the transfer of all powers and duties relating to the acquisition of a utility tunnel from the Bridge Authority to the Corridor Authority is not simply an extension of the main purpose reflected in the title. Rather, it is plain from the body of Act 359 that this transfer is a component of the central, and significantly different, purpose of the body of the Act—authorizing the Corridor Authority to almost immediately enter into a specific type of agreement with a private party to acquire and operate a utility tunnel. And as part of the core purpose of Act 359, the content of § 14d(1) must be reflected in the title. Because it was not, § 14d(1) is unconstitutional. Like the title in Rohan, the amended title to Act 359 does not provide “fair notice” of the automatic power transfer from the Bridge Authority to the newly created, and independent, Corridor Authority, nor is § 14d(1) germane, auxiliary, or incidental to the amended title. See Rohan, 314 Mich at 356–357.

b. Subsection 14d(4)

After receiving the transfer of powers and duties under § 14d(1), § 14d(4) required the Corridor Authority to enter into an agreement for the construction of a tunnel if an agreement was presented by a specific date and contained specific criteria:

Except as provided in subdivision (a), no later than December 31, 2018, the Mackinac Straits corridor authority shall enter into an agreement or a series of agreements for the construction, maintenance, operation, and decommissioning of a utility tunnel, if the Mackinac Straits corridor authority finds all of the following:

(a) That the governor has supplied a proposed tunnel agreement to the Mackinac Straits corridor authority on or before December 21, 2018. If the governor has not supplied a proposed tunnel agreement to the Mackinac Straits corridor authority on or before December 21, 2018, the Mackinac Straits corridor authority shall act on the proposed tunnel agreement no later than 45 days after the date the proposed agreement is presented. [2018 PA 359, § 14d(4), MCL 254.324d(4).]

Subsection 14d(4) goes on to identify ten specific criteria that the Corridor Authority, through its Board, must find to exist in a proposed tunnel agreement before entering into an agreement. 2018 PA 359, § 14d(4)(b)–(k) (b) (allow use of tunnel by multiple utilities); (c) (require gathering of geotechnical information); (d) (build tunnel to specifications); (e) (no obligation of funds inconsistent with the act); (f) (no use of eminent domain); (g) (permits or approvals still required for construction and use of tunnel); (h) (entities using utility tunnel not exempt from taxes); (i) (tunnel agreement does not require Corridor Authority to bring or defend a legal claim); (j) (reimbursement of Bridge Authority for loss of profits due to leasing of tunnel for the transmission of data and telecommunications); and (k) (agreement to include plan to engage state’s labor pool).

Requiring the Corridor Authority to enter into a tunnel agreement, as provided by the Governor and by a certain date, to construct and operate a tunnel so long as it meets statutory criteria is a central, substantive piece of this legislation. Like the power transfer in § 14d(1), it is a component of the main purpose of the body of Act 359 that was required to be reflected in the amended title in a comprehensive yet general way. Pohutski, 465 Mich at 691. But none of the clauses in the amended title generally reflect this purpose or can be construed to reflect this purpose. As a result, the amended title does not provide “fair notice” of an imminent tunnel agreement authorizing the construction of a utility tunnel, nor is § 14d(4) germane, auxiliary, or incidental to the amended title. Rohan, 314 Mich at 356–357. Subsection 14d(4) is thus unconstitutional.

c. Subsection 14d(5)

Finally, § 14d(5) provides that if the “attorney general declines to represent” the Bridge Authority or the Corridor Authority in a “matter related to the utility tunnel,” the “attorney general shall provide for the costs of representation by an attorney . . . chosen by” the Bridge Authority or the Corridor Authority. PA 359, § 14d(5), MCL 254.324d(5). None of the clauses in the amended title adequately encompass, or can be construed to encompass, the Legislature’s imposition of these unusual requirements on the office of attorney general. Thus, to be constitutional the provision must be germane, incidental or auxiliary to the purpose of PA 359 identified in its title. Pohutski, 465 Mich at 691. But this stricture concerning a sitting Attorney General’s decision-making regarding the legal representation of the Bridge Authority or the Corridor Authority cannot reasonably be considered an extension of the main purpose of Act 359 as evidenced in its title. Nor is it incidental or auxiliary to that main purpose. As a result, § 14d(5) is also unconstitutional.

Michigan law is clear that where the body of an act exceeds the general scope of what is expressed in the title, the offending provisions violate article 4, § 24. Here, §§ 14d(1), (4) and (5) of Act 359 violate article 4, § 24 because the amended title does not declare in comprehensive yet general terms the purpose of these sections, and the provisions are not otherwise germane, incidental, or auxiliary to Act 359’s main purpose as stated in its title.

It is my opinion, therefore, that subsections 14d(1), (4) and (5) of 2018 PA 359 violate article 4, § 24 of the Michigan Constitution because the substance of these provisions exceeds the scope of what is generally reflected in the title of 1952 PA 214, as amended by Act 359.

B. Severability of unconstitutional provisions

Having concluded that §§ 14d(1), (4) and (5) of Act 359 violate article 4, § 24, it is necessary to determine whether the offending provisions may be severed, leaving the remainder of Act 359 intact and operative, or whether the invalidation of these sections is fatal to the Act as a whole.

The Legislature has provided for the severability of invalid statutes in MCL 8.5, which states that “[i]f any portion of an act . . . shall be found to be invalid . . . such invalidity shall not affect the remaining portions . . . of the act which can be given effect without the invalid portion . . . provided such remaining portions are not determined . . . to be inoperable[.]” But, even if this test can be met, invalid provisions will not be severed if severing would be inconsistent with the “manifest intent of the Legislature.” In re request for Advisory Opinion Regarding Constitutionality of 2011 PA 38, 490 Mich 295, 346 (2011); People v McMurchy, 249 Mich 147, 158 (1930) (When one part of a statute is held unconstitutional, the remainder of the statute remains valid unless all parts of the statute are so interconnected that the Legislature would likely not have passed the one part without the other).

With respect to title-body violations, as here, the Michigan Supreme Court has applied severability principles to strike the offending provisions while leaving the remainder of the acts intact. See Rohan, 314 Mich at 357–358; Maki, 385 Mich at 159. The question then is whether the remainder of Act 359 can operate without §§ 14d(1), (4), and (5). Arguably, § 14d(5), concerning legal representation by the Attorney General, could be severed from the Act, leaving the remainder of the Act operable. The answer is less clear regarding §§ 14d(1) and (4). Severing these provisions would essentially leave the Bridge Authority with the power to acquire a utility tunnel under § 14a, but without any of the parameters imposed under § 14d(4), and leave the Corridor Authority in existence under § 14b, but without any of the powers or duties transferred under § 14d(1). Various other provisions would have to be construed in light of the severing of §§ 14d(1) and (4).

Even if it is technically possible to sever §§ 14d(1) and (4), doing so would be inconsistent with the “manifest intent of the Legislature.” In re request for Advisory Opinion re 2011 PA 38, 490 Mich at 346; McMurchy, 249 Mich at 158. As noted above, the central purpose of the body of Act 359 was that the Corridor Authority almost immediately enter into a specific type of agreement to acquire and operate a utility tunnel. Without §§ 14d(1) and 14d(4), the remaining provisions of Act 359 could not achieve that objective. Given the significance of §§ 14d(1) and 14d(4), it cannot be concluded that the Legislature “would have passed [Act 359] had it been aware that [these sections] would be declared to be invalid and, consequently, excised from the act.” Pletz v Secretary of State, 125 Mich App 335, 375 (1983); see also Eastwood Park Amusement Co v Stark, 325 Mich 60, 73 (1949) (stating general rule that unconstitutional provisions may be severed if, among other conditions, “it is clear from the [law] itself that it was the intent of the legislature to enact these provisions irrespective of the others”) (citation and quotation marks omitted). Because §§ 14d(1) and (4) cannot be severed from the remainder of Act 359, it must be concluded that the entire Act is unconstitutional.

It is my opinion, therefore, that sections 14d(1), (4), and (5) of 2018 PA 359, which are unconstitutional under article 4, § 24 of the Constitution, cannot be severed from the remainder of the Act 359 because doing so would be inconsistent with the intent of the Legislature. Because 2018 PA

359 is unconstitutional under article 4, § 24, it is unnecessary to address your additional questions regarding the validity of the statute.¹

Effect of unconstitutional statute

Finally, you ask whether, “[i]f the Corridor Authority was not created in a manner that conforms with the [Constitution], is the Authority, its board, and action by the board void.” As noted above, after Act 359 took effect on December 12, 2018, former Governor Snyder appointed members to the Corridor Authority Board, and the Board met on December 19, 2018, and approved a tunnel agreement.

As discussed above, this Opinion concludes that certain sections of Act 359 violate article 4, § 24 of the Constitution, that the offending sections cannot be severed, and that, as a result, Act 359 is unconstitutional in its entirety.

In general, an unconstitutional statute is void ab initio; it is void for any purpose and is as ineffective as if it had never been enacted. Stanton v Lloyd Hammond Produce Farms, 400 Mich 135, 144–145 (1977); Dullam v Wilson, 53 Mich 392, 409–410 (1884); People v Gallagher, 4 Mich 244, 280–282 (1856). Under this rule, judicial decisions declaring statutes unconstitutional have been given full retroactive application. See, e.g., Stanton 400 Mich at 144–145; Briggs v Campbell, Wyant & Cannon Foundry Co, 379 Mich 160 (1967); Horrigan v Klock, 27 Mich App 107 (1970). Doing so in this context would be consistent with another general rule that judicial decisions are normally given complete retroactive effect. Michigan Ed Employees Mut Ins Co v Morris, 460 Mich 180, 189 (1999).

“However, these rules are not blindly followed without concern for principles of justice and fairness.”

Johnson v White, 261 Mich App 332, 336 (2004).

As the Court of Appeals explained:

In recent decades, Michigan has adopted a flexible approach to determining whether a decision should be applied retroactively or prospectively, which involves the threshold question of whether that decision is establishing a new principle of law, either by overruling clear past precedent on which the parties have relied or by deciding an issue of first impression where the result would have been unforeseeable to the parties. If the decision does not announce a new principle of law, then full retroactivity is favored. [Michigan Ed Employees, 460 Mich 190-191.] Johnson at 336.

Here, the conclusion of this opinion that Act 359 is unconstitutional does not rest upon a new principle of law. On the contrary, it is based upon the application of long-standing precedent such as Rohan, supra, concerning the interpretation of article 4, § 24 of the Constitution. While the question presented as to Act 359 specifically is one of first impression, the conclusion that Act 359 is unconstitutional is foreseeable in light of that precedent. Thus, as a threshold matter, one would expect full retroactivity of a determination that Act 359 is unconstitutional.

Moreover, Michigan caselaw regarding retroactive application of new decisions supports full retroactive application of this opinion to the date of the enactment of Act 359:

Where the decision does reflect a new principle of law, our Supreme Court has acknowledged that resolution of the retrospective-prospective issue ultimately turns on considerations of fairness and public policy, and has employed a three-part test to determine to what extent, if any, a decision should receive retroactive application. Under this test, the Court weighs (1) the purpose to be served by the new rule, (2) the extent of reliance on the old rule, and (3) the effect of retroactivity on the administration of justice. [Johnson at 336, internal quotations and citations omitted]

Here, the purpose of the decision is to ensure adherence to the requirements of article 4, § 24 of the Constitution as long interpreted by Michigan courts. As such, this weighs in favor of retroactive application.

With respect to the second factor, no party who may be affected by retroactive application here could have extensively and reasonably relied upon the assumed validity of Act 359 or agreements premised upon it. Even as this legislation rapidly advanced through the Legislature in December 2018, and the proposed tunnel agreement was being considered with abbreviated public notice¹, the validity of both the legislation and the proposed agreement was subject to intense public and legal scrutiny, foreshadowing likely legal challenges.² And on January 1, 2019, your request for this opinion publicly and specifically identified several potential constitutional defects in Act 359, including the violation of the Title-Object Clause of article 4, § 24 of the Constitution. Under these circumstances, any reliance upon assumed validity of the statute was inherently very limited in time and occurred with the understanding that any action might be subsequently invalidated.

Finally, retroactive application of the determination that Act 359 is unconstitutional can have no adverse effect on the administration of justice by Michigan courts. As noted above, there is no pending litigation addressing the validity of Act 359 under article 4, § 24 of the Constitution.

It is my opinion, therefore, that any court determination that Act 359 is unconstitutional would likely apply that decision retroactively, and conclude that the Mackinac Straits Corridor Authority, its Board, and any action taken by the Board are void from their inception.

No. 2019-08

Declaration of State of Emergency

Beginning on March 14, 2019, Newaygo County experienced heavy rainfall and significant snowmelt, which resulted in widespread flooding, damaged homes, displaced residents, and washed out roadways. Due to these conditions, additional actions are necessary to protect public health, safety, and property.

On March 15, 2019, the chief executive official of the Newaygo County Board of Commissioners declared a local state of emergency. Newaygo County has taken several actions to cope with the impacts of the incident, including but not limited to, declaring a local state of emergency, activating the disaster or emergency response and recovery aspects of their emergency operations plan, issuing emergency public information, and providing relief and supplies to flood-stranded individuals. Local resources have been insufficient to address the situation and the assistance of voluntary organizations and the state are required to protect public health, safety, and property, and to lessen or avert the threat of more severe and persisting impacts to the community. Local resources are insufficient to respond to the extreme flooding under the current conditions. State assistance and other outside resources are necessary to effectively respond to, and recover from, the impacts of flooding.

Section 1 of article 5 of the Michigan Constitution of 1963 vests the executive power of the State of Michigan in the governor. Under the Emergency Management Act, 1976 PA 390, as amended, MCL 30.403(4), “[t]he governor shall, by executive order or proclamation, declare a state of emergency if he or she finds that an emergency has occurred or that the threat of an emergency exists.”

Therefore, acting pursuant to the Michigan Constitution of 1963 and Michigan law, including the Emergency Management Act, 1976 PA 390, as amended, MCL 30.401 to 30.421, I order the following:

1. A state of emergency is declared for the county of Newaygo.
2. The Emergency Management and Homeland Security Division of the Department of State Police shall coordinate and maximize all state efforts and may call upon all state departments to utilize available resources to assist in the designated area pursuant to the Michigan Emergency Management Plan.

3. The state of emergency is terminated at such time as the threats to public health, safety, and property caused by the emergency no longer exist, and appropriate programs have been implemented to recover from the effects of this emergency, but in no case later than April 16, 2019, unless extended as provided by the Emergency Management Act.
